

August 23, 2012

For more information contact:
William W. Heun, AIA
Matthei & Colin Associates
1-312-939-4002
williamh@mca-architecture.com

Advocate Lutheran General Hospital Advances Cardiac Catherization Services

CHICAGO—Completing the new biplane cardio cath lab and upgrades for the existing CRM lab facilities advances performing electrophysiology studies and percutaneous valve repair for pediatric and adult patients at Advocate Lutheran General Hospital's Cardiac Catherization Services designed by Matthei & Colin Associates\(M&CA\). The total construction cost is $1.5 million.

Advocate Lutheran General Hospital, located in Park Ridge, Ill. is a tertiary care, academic and research hospital and the only Level I trauma center in the northwest suburban region of Chicago. The 645-bed hospital has been recognized 12 times as one of the Top 100 Hospitals® by Thomson Reuters. It is also among the 15 top major teaching hospitals in the country. Advocate Lutheran General Hospital is part of Oak Brook-based Advocate Health Care, which is the largest health care provider in Illinois and one of the nation's top health care systems.

Since 1974, Matthei & Colin Associates\(M&CA\) specializes in planning and design of healthcare environments. M&CA's architectural services are focused on healthcare and bring an unparalleled depth of experience to every project. Their mission is to deliver imaginative solutions that address both facilities and operational criteria, maximizing staffing, and functional efficiency. Visit their website at www.mca-architecture.com.

###